Let me know if you have questions. Sometimes I took liberties with editing sentences to try to make things clearer, so if they are not reflective of the program or WV policies, etc. just let me know.

I am off tomorrow but will be back in the office on Friday if you want to chat about anything.

Yes, I would like to start work as soon as you can start sending feedback. I am eager to do the work.

Hello!

I'm still here! I haven't heard any rumors about furloughs buzzing around our office, so fingers crossed I never do....but I will keep you in the loop on this end if anything were to happen for sure.

I had a bunch of edits/comments/clarifications on the fact sheet that you submitted to me. It's with our legal counsel now b/c I didn't want to send you my comments and then have to send you any more, if there were others from that office. But, if you want me to send you what I have so that you can start going through them, please let me know.

Thanks,
Liz

We're hearing rumblings that federal employees might be furloughed. I hope you are doing well and not facing anything like that.

I previously worked for South Carolina state government and we went through furloughs and reductions in force also. Not fun.

Anyway, if the bad stuff comes along, kindly shoot me a message so I will know what happened/why I can't reach you.

Best wishes,

Connie
